TWINTOWNS SHOW

Posted: 14 Dec 2009 04:19 AM PST

The Twintowns club in Donegal celebrated its 30th anniversary with a top class show featuring World ranked welterweight Willie McLaughlin and multiple Irish champ Stephen O'Reilly at the Jackson's Hotel in Ballybofey last night.

The show, which was attended by IABA President Dominic O'Rourke, featured a number of bouts between an Irish selection and an England South Counties team.

McLaughlin, who reached the last 16 at the AIBA World Senior Championships in Milan this year, had his hand raised in victory after Llyod Elliott retired in round three

And O'Reilly, of the Twintowns club, registered an 11-3 win over David Joyce of St Michael's Athy.

Speaking after the Ballybofey show, Brian Anderson of the Twintowns BC, thanked everyone for making their 30th anniversary such a memorable night.

He said: "Four of our boxers had to withdraw because of illness and we would like to thank the various boxing clubs from throughout Ireland for their contribution toward making the evening such a success. We would also like to thank the team from the Southern Counties for their contribution toward a fantastic evening."
